Not a minute should be lost when a child shows symptoms of croup. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy coughs appears, will prevent the attack. Sold by All Dealers. 11-4

Don't waste your money buying plasters when you can get a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment for twenty-five cents. A piece of flannel dampened with this liniment is superior to any plaster for lame back, pains in the side and chest, and much cheaper. Sold by All Dealers. 11-4

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sullivan moved to this city from Crete, Neb., last week and will make their home in this city. Mr. Sullivan is a carpenter and has been following his trade in Lincoln and Crete the past two years but concluded to return to the old town and take part in some of the building going on.

Arthur Duffey came down from Hot Springs, S. D., last Saturday morning to spend the week visiting friends in this city and vicinity. Arthur is in love with Hot Springs and says it is an ideal place to live but that he has to come back to the old town occasionally to see the boys and his best friend.

Dan D. Harrington left last Sunday morning for Omaha where he will purchase the grocery stock for his new store which he will open in the Naylor block about September 27th. Dan is an old O'Neill boy with a host of friends in this city and surrounding country and all hope that he will be successful in his business venture and wish him success.

John A. Robertson left for Lincoln Monday morning to attend a meeting of the populist state central committee to select a candidate for governor to fill vacancy caused by the resignation of Governor Shallenberger. John says that he was going down to put a little crape on the political coffin of James C. Dahlgren, the democratic nominee.

The following special from Ainsworth, Neb., appeared in the Omaha World-Herald last Monday: "James Hughes, an old soldier, and Mrs. L. Cress of Hot Springs, S. D., were united in marriage on top of Battle Mountain, near the Springs, by Rev. Mr. Tallman, a Presbyterian minister. They will make Ainsworth and vicinity their future home."

At the Methodist Conference held at Fullerton, Nebraska the past week, Rev. T. S. Watson, who has charge of the Methodist church here the past two years was again appointed pastor of the church in this city. During the two years Mr. Watson has resided in O'Neill he has made many friends who will be glad to learn that he will remain in this city for another year.

Frank Suchy returned last week from Phillips, Wis., where he went a year ago and took a homestead. Frank proved up on his homestead the first of the month and returned to O'Neill and has again opened up a tailorshop in this city. He is located in the Horieky building, one door east of Shoemaker's meat market where he invites all his former patrons to call and any others who are in need of the services of a tailor.

Pat Kay, a five year old pacer and full brother of Speed On, died last Sunday after an illness of about ten days of Swamp fever. Pat Kay was owned by Dave Stannard, was five years old and while not worked any could go a mile in 2:27 without any difficulty. Mr. Stannard figured on tracking him next year and believed that he could have won a good piece of money with him. He was valued at $800.

Dr. E. T. Wilson returned last Thursday evening from a two weeks visit with relatives at his home in Michigan. The Doctor says that crops are good in that state this year, notwithstanding the fact that they had considerable dry weather in the summer. He says that many of the automobile towns are complaining of hard times as a couple of the large factories has closed down, throwing hundreds of men out of employment.

J. Frank Kiernan, who has been manager of the Holt County Telephone company the past three years, has tendered his resignation as manager to take effect October 15th, and shortly thereafter he will leave with his family for St. Joe, Idaho, where he expects to make his future home. Frank has not decided as to what business he will engage in but his many O'Neill and Holt county friends will wish him happiness and prosperity in whatever business he shall engage in.

"Can be depended upon" is an expression we all like to hear, and when it is used in connection with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy it means that it never fails to cure diarrhoea, dysentery or bowel complaints. It is pleasant to take and equally valuable for children and adults. Sold by All Dealers. 11-4

While in the city the first of the week Mr. McGinnis, of the McGinnis Creamery Company, entered into a contract with the Holt county Telephone Company for the use of their poles upon which to string his electric light wires. Mr. McGinnis says that by using the telephone company's poles he will be able to cover more territory with his wires and will also be able to have the plant in operation much sooner than he could have if he had to erect poles for his wires.

MARRIED: On Tuesday evening, September 20, 1910, at the Methodist Parsonage, Mr. Fredrick W. Ratliff and Miss Edith G. Clouse, both of O'Neill, were united in marriage by Rev. T. S. Watson. The happy couple were accompanied by Mrs. N. J. Clouse mother of the bride, Miss Ella Clouse a sister, and Mrs. H. G. Cromwell, a neighbor. Mr. and Mrs. Ratliff will reside in O'Neill for a few weeks, after which they expect to remove to Emerson, Neb.

An old soldiers birthday party was given in honor of Mr. D. A. Goree's 69th birthday last Tuesday the 20th of the month. Six old soldiers were present, besides many relatives and friends and presented to Mr. Goree a nice rocking chair. A bountiful dinner was served of which all did ample justice and all went home reporting that they had spent an enjoyable day, and wished Mr. Goree many more happy birthdays.

Lance McCarthy, son of Mrs. Jerry McCarthy, who died in a hospital in that city last Monday morning. The remains were brought to this city this morning and the funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, from St. Patrick's church. The remains were accompanied to this city by Mrs. Jerry McCarthy, mother of the deceased, P. C. McCarthy of Denver, uncle of the deceased, and Mrs. Anna Dwyer of Butte, aunt of the deceased.

Last week Thomas Challinor dismissed the divorce case he had started against Mary Challinor. The first of this week Mary Challinor, his wife had him arrested upon a peace warrant and he was brought to town by Sheriff Grady Tuesday. On Wednesday the difficulties between Mr. and Mrs. Challinor were adjudicated and he agreed to allow her to secure a divorce and have the custody of the three children. Mr. Challinor is a Kinkaid homesteader living in Swan township.

R. W. McGinnis, of the McGinnis Creamery Company, was up from Lincoln Saturday. Mr. McGinnis says that the architect has about completed the plans for the new creamery and as soon as they are completed the contract for the construction of the building will be let and work upon the structure commenced at once. He says that he has purchased the machinery for the electric light plant and expects to have the same in operation by Christmas McGinnis says that the users of electricity will pay for what current they use, instead of having a flat rate of so much per light. There will be a minimum rate of so much per month and then so much per kilowatt.

State Oil Inspector Mullen came up from Lincoln last Monday to look after some business matters here. Arthur is not as enthusiastic a shout for the democratic ticket this fall as formerly but believes that Dahlgren is going to be next governor and says that he is for him from now to the finish. The political situation in the state is quite complicated he says, many democrats in different parts of the state deserting the democratic nominee for governor and lining up for the republican candidate and many republicans lining up for Dahlgren. He says that it seems to be conceded that Dahlgren will have about 12,000 majority in Douglas county and he says that this majority with the vote he receives throughout the state will be sufficient to land him in the governor's chair.

J. P. MANN & CO.

This year we have added the Kuppenheimer line of Men's Clothing to our already strong line which will make the line one of the strongest in this part of the state as the Kuppenheimer Clothing is in a class of its own and stands without a peer.

Young Men's Clothing

In this line we have the Ederheimer Stein line, or better known as the extra good.

Come in and let us show you some clothing values.

HARRINGTON'S GROCERY STORE

To the People of O'Neill and Vicinity:

On or about Tuesday, Sept. 27th, I will open up a Grocery stock in the West Room of the Naylor Building. My stock will be new and fresh and up-to-date in every particular, and the public is cordially invited to come in and inspect my stock. Come in anyway and renew acquaintances . . . . .

I Handle a Full Line of A. B. C. Pure Foods

A couple of weeks later I will add a 10c and a 25c counter to my stock, and it will be worth your while to come in and inspect this line as this addition will be full of good bargains for all. . . . .
